1817 c. 103

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled *An Act for explaining, amending and reducing into one Act of Parliament the several Acts passed for more effectually governing the Franks and Alms committed in the Advowsonment of Cuth within the City and Liberty of Wexhampton, and that Part of the Duchy of Lancaster adjoining thereto, and the several Parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint Mary le bone, and that Part of the Parish of Saint Andrew Holborn as lies in the County of Middlesex: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled *An Act for further amending and amending the several Acts passed for governing the Franks and Alms committed in the Advowsonment of Cuth within the City and Liberty of Wexhampton, and that Part of the Duchy of Lancaster adjoining thereto, and the several Parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields and Saint Mary le bone, and that Part of the Parish of Saint Andrew Holborn as lies in the County of Middlesex: And Whereas another Act was passed in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled *An Act to remove Doubts as to certain Acts relating to the Advowsonment of Cuth in the City and Liberty of Wexhampton and Parishes adjacent; and to remove and remove an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, relating to the Advowsonment of Cuth within the limits aforesaid, and to amend all Provisions who have acted in pursuance of any of the Provisions of the said Act : And Whereas, by virtue of the first of the said second Acts, an Office was established within the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, called by the Name of the Land Coal Master's Office for the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, to be managed by such Two Persons as should be nominated and appointed by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors ; which Two Persons should be called by the Title of : The Principal Land Coal Masters for the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, and continued by the last of the said recited Acts until the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and five, and from thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament ; And Whereas, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of His present Majesty, respectively bearing Date the Third Day of March in the Tenth eighth Year of His Majesty, and the Twenty third Day of December, in the Forty seventh Year of His Majesty, His said Majesty granted to John Baker of Northumberland Street, Wynhaughe, Gentleman, and Alexander Talbot of Saint Albans Street, Wynhaughe, Gentlemen, the said Land Coal Master's Office for the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, and nominated and appointed them the Principal Land Coal Masters for the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, during His Royal Will and Pleasure : And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the several Acts for regulating the Trade and Delivery of Coals within the County of London and Westminster, and Liberties thereof, and in certain Parts of the County of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent and Essex, and for making better Provision for the same, the several Acts of Parliament heretofore referred to were repealed, and other Provisions and Regulations were made for preventing Frauds and Abuses in the Admeasurement and Delivery of Coals within the Limits in the said Act mentioned ; and by the said Act it was enacted, that the said John Baker and Alexander Talbot, the Two Persons then last nominated and appointed by His said present Majesty, and then holding and exercising the Office of Principal Land Coal Masters for the City of Wynhaughe, should remove and continue such Principal Land Coal Masters for the Purpose of administering Coals within the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, and for that Part of the Duchy of Lancaster adjoining thereto, and for the several Parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint Mary le Bone, and for such Part of the Parishes of Saint Andrew Holborn as lies in the County of Middlesex, and for other Parishes mentioned in the said Act, first and except he or they should die or be removed from such Office or Offices by His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, which Removal His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, are thereby empowered to make, until the Twenty fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and five, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament ; And Whereas the Regulations contained in the said recited Act have been found very beneficial to the Consumers of Coals within the Limits therein comprised : And Whereas the Term for which the said John Baker and Alexander Talbot were continued Principal Land Coal Masters as aforesaid hath nearly expired, and His Majesty has been graciously pleased that the same should be renewed in manner heretofore mentioned : And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether the said Principal Land Coal Masters have the Power of suspending or dissolving the licensing Land Coal Masters appointed by them by virtue of the said second Act ; and it is therefore expedient that such Power should be expressly given to them : And Whereas by the said second Act of the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for preventing Frauds in the Admeasurement and Delivery of Coals within the several Parishes in the County of Middlesex lying between the Parish of Saint Luke Church and the Mouth of the River Colne near Staines ; and also between Littleton Hall and the Mouth of the River Lee near Blackwall ; and also within the several Parishes in the County of Middlesex and Essex, adjoining to both Banks of the River Lee and the Branches thereof between the River Thames and Edmonton, Regulations have been made for preventing Frauds in the Admeasurement and Delivery of Coals in all the Places adjoining the River Thames between the Mouth of the River Lee near Blackwall and the Mouth of the River Colne near Staines, excepting only the said Parish of Saint Luke Church : And Whereas, since the Establishment of the Land Coal Master's Office for the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, the said Parish of Saint Luke Church hath greatly increased in Population and Buildings, and the Houses and Streets therein adjacent and contiguous with certain Parts of the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe : And Whereas the Provisions of the said Act of the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty are liable to be greatly evaded by carrying Coals loaded in the said Parish of Saint Luke Church into the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe ; and it is apprehended that if the Regulations contained in the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty were extended to the said Parish of Saint Luke Church, they would be of great Benefit to the Inhabitants of the said Parish, and would prevent the Provisions of the said Act of the Forty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty from being evaded : And Whereas, in consequence of the numerous Variety of the said Parish of Saint Luke Church in the said City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, the said Parish of Saint Luke Church might work peculiar Inconvenience be compared within the Limits of the said Land Coal Master's Office for the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe : May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be so enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the said Land Coal Master's Office for the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe shall be deemed and taken to be the Principal Land Coal Master's Office, not only for the said City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, and for that Part of the Duchy of Lancaster adjoining thereto, and for the said several Parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields, Saint Mary le Bone, and such Part of the said Parish of Saint Andrew Holborn as lies in the County of Middlesex, but also for the said Parish of Saint Luke Church : Provided always, that in addition to the Land Coal Master's Office already established under the said recited Acts in and for the City and Liberty of Wynhaughe, there shall be an Office to be situated in the Parish of Saint Luke Church, for the Accommodation of the Inhabitants thereof.

An Act for granting an Equivalent for the Discontinuance of the Profits of the Office of Gauger of the City of London, and providing the Payments to be made by Bookers.

[29th June 1817.]

WHEREAS by Letters Patent, bearing Date the Twentieth Day of June, in the Eleventh Year of the said King His Majesty King Edward the Fourth, in Consideration of the Sum of Seven thousand Pounds, Part of the Money then owing by His said Majesty to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, His said Majesty did grant to the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, and three Successors, (among other things therein contained,) the Office of Gauger within the City of London: And Whereas the said Grant was afterwards confirmed by certain other Letters Patent, respectively bearing Date the Eighteenth Day of October, in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the First, and the Twenty fourth Day of June, in the Sixthteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second: And Whereas until the Completion of the Docks authorized to be made by certain Acts of Parliament made and passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the Twenty sixth and Fortieth Year of the Reign of His said present Majesty, which are respectively called the Wst India Docks, and the London Docks, the Obsolete Leagues reported into London were accustomed to be leased within the said City, and the Gauger appointed as the Deputy of the Lord Mayor of the said City was accustomed to gauge such Leagues by virtue of the Grant contained in the aforesaid Letters Patent, and the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens received Profits and Revenues to a considerable Amount in respect thereof: And Whereas, upon the Abolition of the Office of Deputy Gauger by Anthony Harris Esquire, (who succeeded his Father therein, and had held the said Office Twenty three Years and upwards,) in Favour of his Brother Nicholas Barnes Harris Esquire, the said Nicholas Barnes Harris, on the Eighteenth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and six, was duly appointed to the said Office of Deputy Gauger, under the yearly Rent of Seven hundred and Fifty Pounds: And Whereas previous to the Appointment of the said Nicholas Barnes Harris, the said Office of Gauger had been exercised for upwards of a Century all over the Port of London, and it was considered that he would have the Right of gauging in the said Docks, and in consequence of the London Dock Company having obtained that Right, the Question was tried in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and seven, where such Right was confirmed by the Verdict of the Jury; but upon a new Trial at Bar in the said Court of King's Bench, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and nine, granted upon the Application of the said Dock Company, it was determined that the Right of gauging did not extend to the Ships of the said Docks: And Whereas the said Acts of Parliament require the greater Part of the Leagues reported into London to be loaded in the said Docks, and in consequence thereof the said Deputy Gauger, and the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens have sustained considerable Loss from the Discontinuance of the Profits of the said Office of Gauger within the said City of London: And Whereas the said Nicholas Barnes Harris departed this Life on the Twenty third Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and Letters of Administration with his Will annexed have been granted to Charles Church out of the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury: And Whereas it is just and expedient that some Compensation should be made to the said Administrators of the said Nicholas Barnes Harris, and to the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens for the Discontinuance of the Profits of the said Office: And Whereas by an Act made and passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intitled An Act for regulating the Act of the Fifth Year of King James the First, intitled 'An Act for the well parking of Spices, and for granting an Equivalent to the City of London, by admitting Strangers' after reciting that the Office of Gauger was Part of the Revenues of the City of London, and was then let by Lease to William Stewart, under the Rent of Three hundred Pounds per Annum, the Profits of which Office and the Right of the said William Stewart to the same, by repealing the said Act, would be very much diminished; it was enacted, that from and after the Determination of the then Session of Parliament, all Profits then payable to the said Bookers within the City of London and Liberties thereof, should from year to year be advanced to be paid by the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City for the time being, under such Regulations and Limitations for their lawful and good Behaviour as that Court should think fit and reasonable, and should upon such their Admission pay to the Chamberlains of the said City for the time being, for the Use aforesaid and hereinafter mentioned, the Sum of Forty Shillings, and should also yearly pay to the said City the Sum of Forty Shillings upon the Twenty sixth Day of September in every Year; all which Monies should as the said Place be applied for and towards the paying and satisfying to the said William Stewart the Sum of Nine hundred and Sixty seven Pounds Ten Shillings, for a Compensation for his Interest in the said Office; and that from and after the full Payment of the said Sum of Nine hundred and Sixty seven Pounds Ten Shillings to the said William Stewart, all the Monies owing by such Administrators and yearly Payments should go to and be enjoyed by the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London; and it was further enacted, that if any Person or Persons, from and after the Determination of the said then present Session of Parliament, should take upon him or itself as a Booker, or employ any other under him to act as such within the said City and Liberties, not being admitted as aforesaid, every such Person so offending should forfeit and pay to the Use of the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City, for every such Offence, the Sum of Twenty five Pounds, to be recovered

 ' tator of the said Nicholas Baron Haverley, and to the said Mayor and Community and Citizens, for the

 ' Gauger, by granting the Sum of Money to be paid by Persons hereafter to be admitted to sell as Dealers
 ' within the said City of London and Liberties thereof as aforesaid, and it is expedient that the Profits

 ' Profits of his said Office as aforesaid, either in a gross Sum of Money, or by annual Sums for any Number of

Tables of the Strengths of Spirits formed

WHEREAS a certain Act was made in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for establishing the Use of an Hydrometer called Saler's Hydrometer, in ascertaining the Strength of Spirits, instead of Clarke's Hydrometer; seeing therein, that by an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, among other things, for making perpetual so much of an Act made in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty as related to ascertaining the Strength of Spirits by Clarke's Hydrometers, it was enacted, that so much of an Act made in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled *An Act for making Allowances to the Dealers in Foreign Wines, for the Lack of certain Foreign Wines in their Possession at a certain time, upon which the Duties on Importation have been paid, and for extending several Laws relating to the Revenue of Excise, as directed that all Spirits should be deemed and taken to be of the Degree of Strength at which the Hydrometers commonly called Clarke's Hydrometers should, upon Trial by any Officer or Officers of Excise, denote any such Spirits to be, which was to continue in force until the Fifth Day of April One thousand first hundred and eighty eight, and which, by several subsequent Acts, was continued until the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one, should be made perpetual; and that since the passing of the said Acts, as Hydrometers called Saler's Hydrometers had with great Care been compared, and had, by proper Experiments made for that Purpose, been ascertained to denote as Proof Spirits that which, at the Temperature of Fifty-one Degrees by Fahrenheit's Thermometer, weighs exactly Twelve Thirtieth Parts of an equal Measure of Distilled Water, and also to determine the Strengths of all other Spirits, in proportion to the Quantity of such Proof Spirit which is contained therein, or which can be made from them, with a Degree of accuracy never before attained; and that it was expedient to establish the same in law and without of the said Hydrometers called Clarke's Hydrometers, which had remained in Use in Great Britain under and by virtue of the said Act; and that it was also expedient to repeal the said recited Clause of the said Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign aforesaid; and also an Act made in the Forty second Year of the Reign aforesaid, intituled An Act to authorize the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury in Great Britain, and the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury in Ireland, to order the Use of the Hydrometers now employed in the Management of the Revenue to be discontinued and other Instruments to be used instead thereof; And Whereas the said Act, by which the Acts therein related as aforesaid were repealed, and the Use of Saler's Hydrometer established as aforesaid, will expire on the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and eighteen; and it is expedient to repeal the said Act, save and except as hereinafter mentioned, and make further Provision for the Purposes therein mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Act of the Fifty sixth Year aforesaid shall be and the same is hereby repealed, save and except in all Cases relating to the receiving any Tax, Penalty or Forfeiture, Fine, Penalties or Forfeitures, which shall have been incurred under said Act at any time before or on the passing of this Act, and save and except as to so much of the said Act as repealed the said Clause of the Act of the Forty sixth Year, and the said Act of the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, which shall, notwithstanding any thing therein contained, remain wholly repealed.*

II. And be it further enacted, That in and throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, from and after the passing of this Act, all Spirits shall be deemed and taken to be of the Degree of Strength at which the said Hydrometer called Saler's Hydrometer, used under the Direction of the Commissioners of Excise, shall, upon Trial by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, denote such Spirits to be, except any Spirits (not being Foreign Cordons, Foreign Brandy, or Foreign Compounds) which shall be freshened, or have any Legitimate or Ingredients mixed with or put into the same, in or to defeat the Operation of the said Hydrometer, or deceive the Officer in trying the true Strength thereof with the said Hydrometer, whereby His Majesty may be defrauded; in all and every of which Cases, such Spirits shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, any thing in any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and all Sales, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, matters and things in any Act or Acts contained, and not hereby expressly controlled or altered, are repugnant to the Provisions of this Act, relating to the ascertaining of the Degree of Strength of any Spirits, or to the Degree of Strength of any Spirits, for any Purpose whatever relating to the Revenue of Customs and Excise, whether of them, by the said Hydrometer called Clarke's Hydrometer, or by any other Hydrometer in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, shall be in full Force, and applied in all respects as to the said Hydrometer called Saler's Hydrometer, as fully and effectually, as if the same were hereby particularly mentioned as to such last mentioned Hydrometers.

III. And Whereas the Strengths of Spirit denoted by the said Hydrometer called Saler's Hydrometer, according to the Temperature thereof, have been, under the Direction of the Commissioners of Excise for England, “ England, set down in a Table intitled = A Table of the Strength of Spirits drawn by Riker's Hydro“ meter,” and which said Table has been and is published by the Hand of the Right Honourable Nicholas “ Malet,” Character of the Engraver, and signed with the Commissioners of Excise for England; and it “ is expedient to make such Provision for and in respect thereof as is hereinafter mentioned.” It is therefore enacted, That the Strength of Spirits set down in the said Table shall, in and throughout the said United Kingdom, be deemed and taken to be true and just; and that the said Table shall on all assize or common Sessions be laid by every different Office of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs and Excise respectively, and throughout the said United Kingdom, for the Purpose in that behalf aforesaid, and the Refills of each of the said on all Occasions be deemed and taken to be accurate and just Refills.

IV. And it is further enacted, That in all such Trials of the Strength of any Spirit by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise, with the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, in any Part of the said United Kingdom, the Strength of Twenty one per Centum above Proof denoted by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, shall be fabricated and taken for the Strength of One to Four over Hydrometer Proof mentioned in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Customs or Excise in any Part of the said United Kingdom in force immediately before the passing of this Act; and that in all such Trials as aforesaid the Strength of Nine per Centum above Proof denoted by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, shall in like manner be fabricated and taken for the Strength of One to Nine over Hydrometer Proof mentioned in any such Act or Acts; and that in all such Trials as aforesaid, the Strength of Seven per Centum above Proof denoted by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, shall in like manner be fabricated and taken for the Strength of One to Two over Hydrometer Proof mentioned in any such Act or Acts; and that in all such Trials as aforesaid, the Strength of Thirteen per Centum under Proof denoted by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, shall in like manner be fabricated and taken for the Strength of One to Eight under Hydrometer Proof mentioned in any such Act or Acts; and that in all such Trials as aforesaid, the Strength of Fifteen per Centum under Proof denoted by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, shall in like manner be fabricated and taken for the Strength of One to Six under Hydrometer Proof mentioned in any such Act or Acts; and that in all such Trials as aforesaid, the Strength of Seventeen per Centum under Proof denoted by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, shall in like manner be fabricated and taken for the Strength of One to Six under Hydrometer Proof mentioned in any such Act or Acts; and that in all such Trials as aforesaid, the Strength of Twenty two per Centum under Proof denoted by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, shall in like manner be fabricated and taken for the Strength of One to Five under Hydrometer Proof mentioned in any such Act or Acts; and that in all Assays to be taken under or by virtue of any such Act or Acts, by any Officer or Officers of Excise, of the Stock of Spirits already distilled British Spirits, Raw British Spirits, Compounds, or other British Spirits of any Rectified or Reddified, or Compounder or Compounders of Spirits, and all every such Stock and Stocks, shall be taken and compared at the Strength of Twenty eight and Two thirds per Centum under Proof by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, unless and instead of taking and comparing the Line at the Strength of One to Three and Three fourths under Hydrometer Proof mentioned in any such Act or Acts; and that all British Spirits of a greater or higher Degree of Strength than Forty two per Centum above Proof denoted by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, shall be deemed and taken to be Spirits of Wine within the Meaning of all and every such Act and Acts; and that all and every Penalty and Forfeiture, Penalties and Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, matters and things in any such Act or Acts mentioned or contained, touching or relating to any Spirit of the aforesaid Strengths, or any of them, by the said Hydrometer called Clark's Hydrometer, shall remain and be in force, and shall be incurred, applied, observed and complied respectively, in as full and ample manner in all Exits and Purposes whatsoever, with respect to Spirits of the aforesaid Strengths respectively by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer to befabriated for them as aforesaid, as if such last mentioned Strengths respectively had been originally labored in and made Part of such Act or Acts, in lieu of the said Strengths respectively by Clark's Hydrometer for which the same are hereby respectively substituted: Provided always, that if the Strength of any Spirit manufactured and imported from that Part of Great Britain called Scotland into that Part of Great Britain called England as aforesaid, shall, upon Tryed by any Officer or Officers of Excise in England, by the said Hydrometer called Silar's Hydrometer, be proved to be greater than that of Seven per Centum above Proof, and the Strength thereof shall not exceed Ten per Centum above Proof, then and in such Case the said Spirit shall not be forfeited, but shall be charged with a farther Duty proportioned to their said Scotch Strength.

And he is further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, shall be paid for, recovered, levied or mitigated by such Ways, Means or Methods as any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may be paid for, recovered, levied or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Exche, or by Act of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform against or sue for the same.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Spirit of the respective Strengths of which shall have been taken and afterwards in Ireland pursuant to the Directions of the said recited Act of the Fifty fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reize, shall not be liable to be destroyed or seized; nor shall any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture be incurred in respect of any such Spirits (not being liable so Forfeitures for any other Cause) for or by reason of any Kanach which, upon any Trial of the Strengths of such Spirits to be made by any Officer of Customs or Excise in Great Britain or Ireland under the Provisions of this Act, shall or may appear less

And he is further enacted, That no Person who shall carry on the Trade or Business of a Drap-Par only, and not make or manufacture any other Kind of Glass or Glass Ware, and who shall use and employ in such Trade or Business Lamp, Pot or Case Glass only, and shall duly make Entry with the proper Officer of Excise of all and every Workshop and Workshops, Room and Rooms, and Place and Places, where he shall carry on such Trade or Business, or keep any Material or Materials for that Purpose, and shall from time to time produce to the Officer or Officers of Excise surveying such Workshop, Room or Place, all Materials by him used or employed in such Trade or Business, and shall at the same time deliver to such Officer an Invoice or Invoices for all Lamp, Pot or Case Glass received into his Custody or Possession, signed by the Maker and Seller of such Glass, or his Foreman or Clerk, and fabricated also by the Officer of Excise surveying the Glass House where such Glass was made, and shall not use or employ as aforesaid any Cellar or Waste Glass, and shall in all other respects observe and perform the several Regulations, Statutes and things by Law imposed for and in respect of such Trade or Business, except taking out a License as a Glass Maker, shall wear or be fitted or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture for or by reason of using or carrying on such Trade or Business as aforesaid, without having first taken out the License required by Law for that Purpose; any thing in any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided always, that all Cellar or Waste Glass, and all and every other Material and Materials for or which may be used in making any Glass or Glass Ware, found in the Custody or Possession of any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, or any Person or Persons using or carrying on such Trade or Business as aforesaid, fine and except Lamp, Pot or Case Glass for which such Invoice is fabricated shall be produced as aforesaid, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Person and Persons in whose Custody or Possession the same shall be found shall, over and above all other Penalty, forfeit and lose the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

III. And he is further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, or by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament to revise and amend: until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixteen several Laws relating to the Duties on Glass made in Great Britain, and to prohibit the making of Segns within a certain Distance of any other Glass House, or by the Maker of any other Kind of Glass, shall be paid for, recovered, levied or mitigated by such Ways, Means or Methods as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be found for, recovered, levied or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Act of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in England, respectively; and that One Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall discover, inform or sue for the same.

An Act to repeal the several Bounties on the Exportation of refined Sugar from any Part of the United Kingdom, and to allow other Bounties in lieu thereof, until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty, and for reducing the Size of the Packages in which refined Sugar may be exported. [1818 May 16.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the several Bounties respectively allowed on the Exportation from any Part of the United Kingdom, of Sugar, in any way refined within the United Kingdom, shall be discontinued, and that other Bounties shall be granted and allowed in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, the several Bounties on the Exportation, from any Part of the United Kingdom, of Sugar, in any way refined within the United Kingdom, whether refined by the Operation of Chipping or otherwise, allowed under or in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, shall cease, determine and be no longer paid; and that interest and in lieu thereof there shall be paid and allowed the several Bounties on all such refined Sugar, whether refined by the Operation of Chipping or otherwise, exported from any Part of the United Kingdom, as the same are respectively detailed and set forth in the Table to this Act annexed.

II. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That the several and respective Bounties on any Sort of refined Sugar exported from any Part of the United Kingdom, which from and after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eighteen are by this Act repealed, shall be paid or allowed on any such Sugar which shall be actually shipped for the Purpose of Exportation to Foreign Parts from any Part of the United Kingdom on or before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, notwithstanding such Sugar may not be exported until after the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

III. And he is further enacted, That the several Bounties on refined Sugar by this Act granted, shall be paid or allowed in such and the like manner in every respect, and subject and under and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Conditions, Securities, Penalties and Forfeitures (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), as any Bounties on refined Sugar exported from any Part of the United Kingdom were paid or allowed before the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

IV. And be it further enacted, That before any Bounty granted and allowed by this Act shall be paid, or any Debiture made out for the same, the Refiner or Refiners, not being the Exporter or Exporters of such Sugars, shall make Oath before the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs, that he or they sold such Sugar, comprising the Quantity and the time when, in the Port or Ports intended to export the same, and that, as he or they verily believe, such Sugar was produced from Molasses Sugar imported from His Majesty's Plantations in America, or from Sugars the Produce of the East Indies, and that the several Duties payable thereon were duly paid at the time of exporting the same; and the Exporter or Exporters of such Sugars shall also make Oath that such Sugars, being the Sugars for which such Bounty is then claimed, are the identical Sugars or Part thereof which were sold to him as aforesaid by such Refiner or Refiners; and before the Bounty due upon such Debitures or Debitures shall be paid, such Exporter or Exporters shall also make Oath that the said Sugars have been duly exported, His Majesty's Officers also certifying the shipping thereof, and all the Regulations of Law being duly complied with; and whenever the Refiner or Refiners of such Sugars shall be the Exporter or Exporters thereof, he or they shall also make Oath as well of the due Exportation of the same, as of the several Particulars hereinbefore directed to be sworn by him or them (excepting what relates to the Sale of the said Sugars).

V. And be it further enacted, That all Sugar refined otherwise than by the Operation of Claying shall be entitled to the Bounty allowed and made payable by this Act, and the Table therein amount, without regard to any Rules or Regulations relating to such Operation of Claying; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

VI. And be it further enacted, That nothing contained in an Act made in the Fifty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign for granting Bounties on Sugar refined otherwise than by Claying, or in this Act, shall extend or be construed to extend to give or allow any Bounty, Drawback or Allowance on refined Sugar exported from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain, nor to abate or repeal any of the Countervailing Duties or Equivalent Drawbacks on refined Sugar exported from one Country to the other, granted and made payable under the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and the several other Acts relating to such Countervailing Duties and Equivalent Drawbacks in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively.

VII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to abate or repeal the Deduction to be made from the Bounty allowed on refined Sugar when exported from any Part of the United Kingdom in any other than a British Vessel, saved, imported and registered according to Law, as directed by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for abolishing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, and for allowing other Drawbacks and Bounties in Lieu thereof, until the Fifteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five; or by an Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to provide more effectually for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Ireland; and for allowing British Plantation Sugar to be warehoused in Ireland, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight.

VIII. And Whereas it is expedient to reduce the Quantity of refined Sugar required to be packed in such Packages for Exportation to obtain the Drawback or Bounty; be it enacted, That the Drawback or Bounty due on the Exportation of refined Sugar, from that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, shall be allowed and paid upon the Exportation of all refined Sugar (except Candy) when packed in Hogsheads, Cases or Cases, each of which shall contain Two Hundred Weight Avoirdupois of such Sugar at the bulk; and also upon the Exportation from that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain of all Sugar called Candy, properly refined and manufactured, and free from Dirt and Scum, when packed in any Boxes or other Packages, each of which shall contain Fifty six Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of such Sugar called Candy at the bulk; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force until the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty.

C A P. XXXVI.

An Act to carry into Execution a Treaty made between His Majesty and the King of Spain, for the preventing Traffic in Slaves.
(15th May 1818.)

Treaty, dated May 15, 1812, revised.

WHEREAS a Treaty was made between His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty the King of Spain, for preventing Traffic in Slaves, and signed at Madrid on the Twenty third Day of September One thousand eight hundred and Green: And Whereas by the First Article of the said Treaty, His Catholic Majesty engaged that the Slave Trade shall be abolished throughout the entire Dominions of Spain on the Thirtieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and that from and after that Period it shall not be lawful for any of the Subjects of the Crown of Spain to purchase Slaves, or to carry on the Slave Trade on any Part of the Coast of Africa, upon any Pretext or in any manner whatever; provided however, that a Term of Five Months from the said Date of the Thirtieth of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty shall be allowed for completing the Voyages of Vessels which shall have been cleared out lawfully previously to the said Thirtieth of May: And Whereas it was by the Second Article of the said Treaty agreed, that from and after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty, it shall not be lawful for any of the Subjects of the Crown of Spain to purchase Slaves, or to carry on the Slave Trade on any Part of the Coast of Africa to the North of the Equator, upon any Pretext or in any manner whatever; provided however, that a Term of Six Months from the Date of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty shall be allowed for completing the Voyages of Vessels which shall have been cleared out from Spanish Ports for the said Coast previously to the Exchange of the said Ratifications: And Whereas by the Third Article of the said Treaty, His Majesty engaged to pay in London, on the Twentieth of February One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, the Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds Sterling to such Person as His Catholic Majesty shall appoint to recover the same; And Whereas it was by the Fourth Article of the Treaty agreed, that the said Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds Sterling is to be considered as a full Compensation for all Losses sustained by the Subjects of His Catholic Majesty, engaged in the Traffic, on account of Vessels captured previously to the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty, as also for the Losses which are a necessary Consequence of the Abolition of the said Traffic: And Whereas it was in the Fifth Article of the said Treaty declared and agreed, that every Traffic in Slaves, which should be carried on under the Circumstances in the said Article stated, should be considered as illicit; First, either by British Ships, and under the British Flag, or for the Account of British Subjects, by any Vessel, or under any Flag whatever: Secondly, by Spanish Ships upon any Part of the Coast of Africa North of the Equator, after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty; provided however, that Six Months should be allowed for completing the Voyages of Vessels conformably to the Tenor of the Second Article of the said Treaty: Thirdly, either by Spanish Ships and under the Spanish Flag, or for the Account of Spanish Subjects, by any Vessel, or under any Flag whatever, after the Thirtieth of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty, when the Traffic in Slaves on the Part of Spain was declared by the said Treaty to cease entirely; and it was by the said Article provided, that Five Months should be allowed for the Completion of Voyages commenced in due time, conformably to the First Article of the said Treaty: Fourthly, under the British or Spanish Flag, for the Account of the Subjects of any other Government: Fifthly, by Spanish Vessels bound for any Port not in the Dominions of His Catholic Majesty: And Whereas by the Sixth Article of the said Treaty, His Catholic Majesty engaged to adopt, in Conformity to the Spirit of the said Treaty, the Measures which are best calculated to give full and complete Effect to the laudable Objects thereof: And Whereas it was by the Seventh Article of the said Treaty stipulated, that every Spanish Vessel which shall be destined for the Slave Trade, on any Part of the Coast of Africa, where this Traffic still continues to be lawful, shall be provided with a Royal Passport, conformable to the Model annexed to the said Treaty, and which Model forms an integral Part of the same, written in the Spanish Language with an authentic Translation in English annexed thereto and signed by His Catholic Majesty, and countersigned by the Minister of Marine, and also by the Principal Naval Authority of the District, Station or Port from whence the Vessel clears out, whether in Spain, or in the Colonial Possessions of His Catholic Majesty: And Whereas it was by the Eighth Article of the said Treaty agreed, that it should be understood that this Passport, for rendering lawful the Voyages of Slave Ships, should be required only for the Continuance of the Traffic to the South of the Line, and that their Passports which were then used, signed by the First Secretary of State of His Catholic Majesty, and in Form prescribed by an Order of the Government of December One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, should remain in full Force for all Vessels which may have cleared out for the Coast of Africa, as well to the North as to the South of the Line, previously to the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty: And Whereas it was also agreed and declared by the Ninth Article of the said Treaty, that the Ships of War of His Majesty and of His Catholic Majesty, which should be provided with special Instructions for that Purpose, as mentioned in the said Treaty, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the two Nations as may be suspected, upon reasonable Grounds, for having Slaves on Board, seized by so much Trade; and in the Event only of their finding Slaves on board, may detain and bring away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial before the Tribunals to be established for that Purpose, as Specified in the said Treaty; and it was by the said Article provided, that the Commanders of Ships of War of the Royal Navies of His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty, who shall be employed in this Service, shall address Brillies to the chief Officer of the Instructions which they shall receive for this Purpose; and His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty engaged mutually to make good any Losses which the Subjects of His Majesty and of His Catholic Majesty might respectively incur unjustly, by the arbitrary and illegal Detention of their Vessels, it being understood that this Indemnity shall inasmuch be borne by the Government whose Cruiser shall have been guilty of the arbitrary Detention; provided always, that the Visit and Detention of Slave Ships (specified in the said Article) shall only be effected by their British or Spanish Vessels which may form Part of the two Royal Navies, and by these only of such Vessels which are provided with the special Instructions annexed to the said Treaty: And Whereas it was also agreed by the Tenth Article of the said Treaty, that no British or Spanish Cruiser shall detain any Slave Ship not having Slaves actually on board, and that in order to render lawful the Detention of the Ship, whether British or Spanish, the Slaves found on board such Vessel must have been brought on board the Vessel for the express Purpose of the Traffic, and that on board of Spanish Ships must have been taken from that Part of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade is prohibited, conformably to the Tenor of the said Treaty; and it was also agreed by the Eleventh Article of the said Treaty, that all Ships of War of the two Nations which shall hereafter be destined to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves, shall be furnished with a Copy of the Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, and considered as an integral Part thereof, with a Permit accordingly in the said Treaty, that His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty, with mutual Consent, may alter the Instructions in whole or in part, according to Circumstances: And Whereas it was also by the Twelfth Article of the said Treaty provided, in order to bring to Adjudication, with the least Delay and Inconvenience, the Vessels which may be detained for having been engaged in an illicit Traffic of Slaves, that there shall be established, within a Space of a Year or shorter from the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty, Two mixed Commissions, formed of an equal Number of Officers of the two Nations, named for that Purpose by the respective Sovereigns; and that these Commissions shall reside, one in a Possession belonging to His Majesty, the other within the Territories of His Catholic Majesty, one of which Commissions is designated by the said Treaty to be always held upon the Coast of Africa, and the other in one of the Colonial Possessions of His Catholic Majesty; and it was by the said Treaty provided, that the said Commissions shall judge the Cases submitted to them without Appeal, and according to the Regulations and Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, which said Instructions were by the said Treaty made an integral Part thereof: And Whereas the Instructions heretofore referred to, and annexed to the said Treaty as Part thereof, relating to the British and Spanish Ships of War employed to prevent illicit Traffic in Slaves, did in several Articles provide, First, That every British or Spanish Ship of War shall, in conformity with Article Nine of the Treaty, have a Right to visit the Merchant Ships of either of the Two Nations actually engaged or supposed to be engaged in the Slave Trade; and if any Slaves shall be found on board, according to the Tenor of the Tenth Article of the Treaty; and as to what regards the Spanish Vessels, if there shall be Cause to suspect that the said Slaves have been embarked as a Part of the Coast of Africa where the Traffic is no longer permitted, conformably to the said Treaty; and in such Cases alone, the Commander of the said Ship of War may detain such Merchant Ship or Vessel, and shall, as soon as possible, bring the same for Judgment before each of the Two mixed Commissions appointed by the Twelfth Article of the said Treaty, which shall be the court to which the Commander of the capturing Ship shall, upon his own Responsibility, think he can proceed much from the Spot where the Slave Ship shall have been detained: and it was provided, that Ships on board of which no Slaves shall be found, intended for the Purpose of Traffic, shall not be detained on any Account or Pretence whatsoever; and that Negro Servants or Sailors found on board any such Vessels, shall not in any case be deemed a sufficient Cause for Detention: and it was also provided by the Second Article of the said last mentioned Instructions, that no Spanish Merchantman or Slave Ship shall, on any Pretence whatever, be detained, which shall be found any where near the Land, or on the High Seas South of the Equator, during the Period for which the Traffic is to remain lawful, according to the said Treaty, unless after a Chase that shall have commenced North of the Equator: and it was also provided by the Third Article of the said last mentioned Instructions, that Spanish Vessels, furnished with a regular Passport, having Slaves on board, shipped at such Parts of the Coast of Africa where the Trade is permitted to Spanish Subjects, and which shall afterwards be found North of the Equator, shall not be detained by any British or Spanish Ship of War, if such Spanish Vessels can account for their Certificate, either in Conformity with the Practice of the Spanish Navigation, by steering some Degrees to the Northward in search of fair Winds, or for other legitimate Causes, such as the Danger of the Sea, duly proved; provided always, that with regard to all Slave Ships detained to the North of the Equator, after the Expiration of the Term allowed, the Proof of the Legality of the Voyage is required to be furnished by the Vessel so detained; on the other Hand, with respect to Slave Ships detained to the South of the Equator, in Conformity with the Specifications of the preceding Article, the Proof of the Illegality of the Voyage is required to be exhibited by the Captain; and it was in like manner stipulated, that the Number of Slaves found on board a Slave Ship by the Commanders, even if the Number should not agree with that contained in the Passport, shall not be sufficient Reason to justify the Detention of such Ship, but that the Captain and the Proprietor shall in such case be denounced to the Spanish Tribunals, in order to their being punished according to the Laws of the Country: and it was also provided by the Fourth Article of the said last mentioned Instructions, that every Spanish Vessel intended to be employed in the legal Traffic of Slaves, in conformity with the Principles laid down in the said Treaty, shall be commanded by a return

• a native Spaniard, and Two thirds at least of the Crew shall likewise be Spaniards; and it was provided that
 • the Spanish or foreign Consulate of the Ship or Vessel shall in no wise affect the national Character of
 • the Ship or Vessel, and that the Negro Sailors shall always be reckoned as Spaniards, provided they belong
 • as Slaves to Subjects of the Crown of Spain, or that they have been enfranchised in the Dominions of His
 • Catholic Majesty; and it was also provided by the Fifth Article of the said last mentioned Instructions, that
 • whenever a Ship of War shall meet a Merchantman liable to be searched, it shall be done in the most mild
 • manner, and with every attention which is due between allied and friendly Nations; and in no Case shall the • Search be made by an Officer holding a Rank inferior to that of Lieutenant in the Navy of Great Britain
 • or of Captain of a Ship of the Line in the Spanish Navy; and it was also provided by the Sixth Article of
 • the said last mentioned Instructions, that the Ships of War which may detain any Slave Ship, in pursuance of
 • the Principles laid down in the said Instructions, shall have on board all the Cargo of Negroes attached, as • well as the Captain, and a Part at least of the Crew of the Slave Ship; and that the Captain commanding the • Ship of War detaining any such Slave Ship shall draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, which shall • exhibit the State in which he found the detained Ship, and the Charges which may have taken place in
 • such Ship, and shall also deliver to the Captain of the Slave Ship a signed Certificate of the Papers found
 • on board the Vessel, as well as of the Number of Slaves found on board at the Moment of Detention; and
 • it is also provided, that the Negroes on board of any such Ship shall not be disembarked until the Vessel
 • detained shall arrive at the Place where the Legality of the Capture is to be tried by One of the Two mixed
 • Commissions, in order that in the Event of the Vessel not being adjudged a legal Prize, the Losses of the Pro• prietors may be more easily repaired; with Provision, however, that if urgent Motives, deduced from the • Length of the Voyage, the State of Health of the Negroes, or other Causes, require that they shall be dis-
 • embarked entirely or in part, before the Vessel can arrive at the Place of Residence of One of the said
 • Commissions, the Commander of the capturing Ship may take on himself the Responsibility of such Disem-• barkations, provided that the Necessary thereof shall be stated in a Certificate in proper Form; and it was also • provided by the Seventh Article of the said Instructions, that on Conveyance of Slaves from one Port to the • Spanish Possessions or another, shall take place, except in Ships provided with Passports from the Spanish • Government on the Spot for that Purpose; And Whereas the Regulations for the mixed Commissions which
 • are to sit on the Coast of Africa, and in a Colonial Possession of His Catholic Majesty, and which were
 • inserted in the said Treaty as Part thereof, have in several Articles provided, First, That the mixed Com-
 • missions to be established by the said Treaty upon the Coast of Africa, and in a Colonial Possession of His
 • Catholic Majesty, shall decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Slave Vessels as the Ships of War
 • of both Nations shall detain, in pursuance of the said Treaty, for carrying on an illicit Commerce in Slaves,
 • and shall judge without Appeal, according to the Letter and Spirit of the said Treaty; and that the said
 • Commissions shall give Sentence as summarily as possible, and decide (in far as they shall find it practicable)
 • within the Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from the Day upon which every detained Vessel shall have • been brought into the Port where they shall reside, first, upon the Legality of the Capture, and secondly,
 • in the Case in which the captured Vessel shall have been liberated, as to the Indemnification to be paid for the
 • Captains and Detention; and it is by the said Regulations provided, that no final Sentence shall be delayed
 • on account of the Absence of Witnesses, or for want of the Process, beyond the Period of Two Months, ex• cept upon Application of any of the Parties interested, when, upon their giving satisfactory Security to • charge themselves with the Expenses and Risks of the Delay, the Commissions may, at their Discretion,
 • grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four Months; and it was also by the Second Article of the said
 • Regulations provided, that the said mixed Commissions, which are to sit on the Coast of Africa, and in
 • the Colonial Possessions of His Catholic Majesty, shall be composed in the following manner; that here say,
 • that His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty shall each of them name a Consular Judge and a Commissioner
 • of Arbitration, who shall be authorised to hear and decide, without Appeal, all Cases of Capture of Slave
 • Vessels which, in pursuance of the Stipulations of the said Treaty, may be laid before them; and it was also • provided, that all the essential Parts of the Proceedings carried on before the said mixed Commissions, shall
 • be written down in the legal Language of the Country in which the Commission may reside; and it was also • thereby provided, that the Consular Judges and the Commissioners of Arbitration shall make Oath in • Presence of the principal Magistrate of the Place in which the Commission may reside, to judge fairly and
 • faithfully, to have no Preference either for the Claimants or the Captors, and to act in all their Decisions in • pursuance of the Stipulations of the Treaty; and it was also thereby provided, that there shall be appointed to
 • each Commission a Secretary or Registrar appointed by the Sovereign of the Country in which the Commission
 • may reside, who shall register all its Acts, and who, previous to his taking charge of his Office, shall make
 • Oath in Presence of at least One of the Consular Judges, to conduct himself with respect for their Autho• rity, and to act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to his Charge; and it was also provided in
 • the Third Article of the said Regulations, that the Form of the Process shall be as follows; that is to say,
 • the Consular Judges of the Two Nations shall, in the first Place, proceed to the Examination of the • Papers of the Vessel, and receive the Depositions on Oath of the Captain, and of Two or Three at least of the • Principal Individuals on board of the detained Vessel, as well as the Declaration on Oath of the Captain, should it
 • appear necessary in order to be able to judge and to pronounce if the said Vessel has been justly detained or not;
 • according to the Stipulations of the Treaty, in order that, according to their Judgment, the Vessel may be
 • condemned or liberated, and in the Event of the Two Consular Judges not agreeing upon the Sentence,
 • whether as to the Legality of the Detention, or the Indemnification to be allowed, or upon any other
 • Question which might arise from the Stipulations of the Treaty, they shall draw by Lot the Name of One • of the Two Commissioners of Arbitration, who, after having considered the Documents of the Process,

shall confide with the Commodity Judges upon the Case in Question, and the final Sentence shall be pronounced conformably to the Opinion of the Majority of the Commodity Judges and of the Commissioners of Arbitration in chief; and it was also provided by the Fourth Article of the said Regulations, that as often as the Cargo of Slaves found on board of a Spanish Slave Ship shall have embarked from any Port whatever of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade continues to be lawful, such Slave Ship shall not be detained as a Pretence that the above mentioned Slaves have been brought originally by Land from any other Part whatever of the Continent; and it was also provided by the Fifth Article of the said Regulations, that in the authenticated Declaration which the Captain shall make before the Commission as well as in the Certificate of the Papers Invol, which shall be delivered to the Captain of the captured Vessel at the time of the Detention, the Captain shall state and declare his Name, and the Name of his Vessel, as well as the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detention shall have taken place, and the Number of the Slaves found lying on board the Slave Ship at the time of the Detention; and it was also provided, by the Sixth Article of the said Regulations, that as soon as any Sentence shall have been passed, the detained Vessel, if allowed, and what may remain of the Cargo, shall be restored to the Proprietors, who shall, before the final Commission, claim a Valuation of the Damages which they may have a Right to demand; and that the Captain himself, and in his default, the Government to which the Captain shall belong, shall remain responsible for such Damages, which the said Governments respectively bind themselves to deliver, within the Term of a Year from the Date of the Sentence, it being understood that all such Indemnifications shall be at the Expense of the Government of which the Captain shall be a Subject; and it was also by the Seventh Article of the said Regulations provided, that in case the Commodore of any Vessel for an unlawful Voyage, the Vessel shall be declared lawful Prize, as well as her Cargo, of whatever Description it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who may be on board, as Objects of Commerce; and the said Vessel, as well as her Cargo, shall be sold by public Sale, for the Profit of the Two Governments; and as to the Slaves, they shall receive from the mixed Commission a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Government on whose Territory the Commission which shall have so judged them shall be established, to be employed as Servants or free Laborers; and it was also further provided by the Eighth Article of the said Regulations, that every Claim for Compensation of Losses, sustained by any Ships being impounded and detained, as carrying on an alien Trade in Slaves, but not afterwards considered as lawful Prize by the mixed Commissions, shall be also heard and judged by the said Commissions, in the Form provided by the Third Article of the said Regulations; and in all Cases wherein Reclamation shall be so deemed, the Commissions shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, or his or their lawful Attorney or Attorneys, for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages, which the Claimant or Claimants may have actually sustained by such Capture and Detention; that is to say, in case of Total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, first, for the Ship, her Tackle, Appurtenant and Stores; secondly, for all Freight due and payable; thirdly, for the Value of the Cargo of Merchandise, if any; fourthly, for the Slaves on board at the time of Detention, according to the computed Value of such Slaves at the Place of Detention, deducting therefrom the usual fair average Mortality, for the unexpired Period of the regular Voyage, deducting also for all Charges and Expenses payable upon the Sale of such Carcases, including Commission of Sale; and fifthly, for all other regular Charges in such Cases of Total Loss; and in all other Cases not of Total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, first, for all special Damages and Expenses occasioned to the Ship by the Detention, and for the Loss of Freight, when due or payable; secondly, a Demurrage, when due, according to the Schedule annexed as the said Eighth Article; thirdly, a daily Allowance for Subsistence of Slaves, of One Shilling or Four Reals and Half de Voz, for each Person, without distinction of Age or Sex, for so many Days as it shall appear to the Commission that the Voyage has been or may be delayed by reason of such Detention; as likewise, fourthly, for any Deterioration of Cargo or Slaves; fifthly, for any Detention in the Value of the Cargo of Slaves, proceeding from an accidental Mortality beyond the average Amount of the Voyage, or from Sickness occasioned by Detention, this Value to be determined by their computed Price at the Place of Destination, as in the above Table of Total Loss; sixthly, an Allowance of Five per Centum on the Amount of the Capital employed in the Purchase and Maintenance of Cargo, for the Period of Delay occasioned by the Detention; and, seventhly, for all Premiums of Insurance on additional Risks; and the Claimant or Claimants shall likewise be entitled to Interest, at the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum, on the Sum awarded, and paid by the Government to which the capturing Ship belongs; the whole Amount of such Indemnifications being calculated in the Money of the Country to which the captured Ship belongs, and to be liquidated at the Exchange current at the time of Award, accepting the Sum for the Subsistence of Slaves, which shall be paid as, as above stipulated; and to avoid as much as possible every Species of Fraud in the Execution of the said Treaty, it was agreed, that if it should be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commodity Judges of the Two Nations, and without having recourse to the Decision of a Commissioner of Arbitration, that the Captain has been led into Error by a voluntary and reprehensible Fault on the Part of the Captain of the detained Ship, in that case only the detained Ship shall not lose the Right of recovering during the Days of her Detention, the Demurrage regulated by the said Eighth Article; and so in proportion; and it was also by the said Ninth Article of the said Regulations provided, that when the Proprietor of a Ship suspected of carrying on an illicit Trade in Slaves, released in consequence of a Sentence of one of the mixed Commissions (or in the Case as above mentioned of Total Loss) shall claim Indemnification for the Loss of Slaves which he may have suffered, he shall in no case be entitled to claim for more than the Number of Slaves which he Vell'd, by the Spanish Laws, was authorized to carry, which Number shall always be stated in his Papers; and it was also provided in the Tenth Article of the said Regulations, that neither the Judges nor the Arbitrators, nor the Secretary of the mixed Commissions, shall be permitted to demand or receive, from any of the Parties concerned in the Sentence which they shall pronounce, any Emolument, under any Pretence whatsoever, for the Performance of the Duties which are imposed upon them by the said Regulations; and it was also provided by the Eleventh Article of the said Regulations, that if any Parties interested shall imagine they have Cause to complain of any violent Ignorance on the Part of the mixed Commissions, they may represent it to their respective Governments, who reserve to themselves the Right of mutual Correspondence, for the Purpose of removing, when they think fit, the Individuals who may compose these Commissions; and it was also provided by the Twelfth Article of the said Regulations, that in case of a Vell'd being improperly detained under Pretence of the stipulations of the Treaty, and the Captor not being able to justify himself, either by the Terms of the said Treaty, or of the Instructions annexed to it, the Government to which the detained Vell'd may belong shall be entitled to demand Reparation, and in such case the Government to which the Captor may belong binds itself to cause Inquiry to be made into the Subject of the Complaint, and to inflict upon the Captor, if he be found to have delayed it, a Punishment proportioned to the Transgression which may have been committed; and it was also by the Thirteenth Article of the said Regulations agreed, that in the Event of the Death of One or more of the Consultary Judges, or the Commissioners of Arbitration, composing the above mentioned mixed Commissions, three Vells shall be supplied ad interim in the following manner; that is, on the Part of the British Government, the Vacancies shall be filled successively in the Commission, which shall sit within the Possessions of His Majesty, by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor resident in that Colony, by the principal Magistrate of the same, and by the Secretary; and in that which shall sit within the Possessions of His Catholic Majesty, it was agreed, that in case of the Death of the British Judge or Arbitrator three, the remaining Individuals of the said Commission shall proceed equally to the Judgment of such Slave Ships as may be brought before them, and to the Execution of their Sentence; and in such Cases where the Parties interested shall have the Right of appealing from the Sentence if they think fit, to the Commission resident upon the Coast of Africa; and the Government in which the Captor shall belong shall be bound fully to make good the Compensation which shall be due to them in case the Appeal be decided in favour of the Claimant, but the Vell'd and Cargo shall remain during such Appeal in the Place of Residence of the said Commission before which they shall have been seized; and it was thereby agreed, that on the Part of Spain the Vacancies shall be supplied in the Possession of His Catholic Majesty by such Persons of Trust as the Principal Authority of the Country shall appoint; and upon the Coast of Africa, in case of the Death of any Spanish Judge or Arbitrator, the Commission shall proceed to Judgment in the same manner as above specified, for the Commission resident in the Possessions of His Catholic Majesty, in the Town of the British Judge or Arbitrator; an Appeal being in this Case likewise allowed to the Commission resident in the Possession of His Catholic Majesty, and in general all the Provisions of the former Case being to be applied; and it was further agreed by the said Article, that all Vacancies which may arise in the above mentioned Commissions, from Death or any other Cause, should be supplied as soon as possible; and in case that the Vacancy of any of the Spanish Commissioners in the British Possessions, or of the British Commissioners in the Spanish Possessions, be not supplied at the End of the Term of Seven Months for America, and of Twelve for Africa, the Vells which shall be brought to the said Possessions respectively shall cease to have the Right of Appeal above Regulated.

And Whereas it is expedient and necessary that official Provisions should be made for carrying into Execution the Provisions of the said Treaty, Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for any Officers commanding any Ship of War of His Majesty, duly authorized in that behalf, and provided with Instructions according to the Provisions of the said Convention, to visit and search all Ships and Vells which shall be suspected, upon reasonable Grounds, of having Slaves on board, acquired by an illicit Traffic, and to detain and bring to Adjudication all Ships, Vells and Carpes therein made subject to Detention and Condemnation, according to the Provisions of the said Treaty, and the Regulations and Instructions aforesaid.

C A P. XLVI.

An Act for Relief of Persons entitled to Retailed Estates, so be purchased with Trust Monies, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland. [30th May 1818.]

WHEREAS by the Practice of Courts of Equity in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, in Cases in which Money under the Control of such Courts is subject to be laid out in the Purchase of Lands to be leased to Ulster capable of being barred by Fine, the said Courts direct such Money to be paid to the Party or Parties who could by Fine bar the Ulster to which such Lands, on such the same had been purchased, would have been leased, and do not require or compel the actual leasehold of such Monies in the Purchase of Lands, notwithstanding other Persons might take Estates or Interests therein if the same were purchased, and be entitled to hold such Estates or Interests until such Fine was actually made. And whereas nevertheless, where Money under the Control of the said Courts is subject to be invested in the Purchase of Lands to be leased to Ulster not capable of being barred by Fine, but capable of being barred by Recovery, the said Courts, according to the Practice thereof, refuse to direct the same to be paid to the Party or Parties who, in such such Lands had been purchased, could by Recovery have barred all the Ulster to which the same would have been leased, and require and compel the actual Investment of such Monies in a Purchase or Purchases of some Lands; and such last mentioned Practice

" is attended with great Inconvenience and Expence to the Party or Parties who by a Recovery could " bar the Title to which such Lands are to be limited when purchased, and the Interest and Benefit of " others, who might take Estates heretofore by such Recovery when suffered, is not according to such full
 " measured Practice materially promoted or secured, and it may therefore be expedient to alter such Prac" tice: And whereas it may also be expedient to provide some satisfactory and summary Proceeding,
 " whereby Trustees possessed of Money Subject to be laid out in Lands may be required in proper Cases
 " to pay such Money to the Parties entitled, and under the Act to become entitled, to receive the same: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all Cases where Money under the Control of any Court of Equity, or of or to which any Individuals as Trustees are possessed as capital, is that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, shall be Subject to be involved in the Purchase of Freehold or Copyhold Hereditaments, or both, to be limited upon any Person or Persons in such manner that it would be competent, in case such Money had been invested in the Purchase of Real Estates, for the Person or Persons who would be the Tenant or Tenants of the first Estate or Estates Tail therein, either alone or together with the Person or Persons who would be the Owner or Owners of the particular preceding Estate or Estates therein, if any, by Deed, Ties or Common Recovery, or any of them, or other lawful Act, in the case of Freehold Hereditaments, or by Surrender and Recovery, or either of them, or other lawful Act, in the case of Copyhold Hereditaments, to bar the first Estate or Estates Tail, and the Rights and Interests of all Persons in Remainder, it shall not be necessary to have such Money actually invested in Lands or Hereditaments, in order that such Estates Tail and Remainders now may be so barred; but that it shall and may be lawful to and for the High Court of Chancery, or such Court of Equity, under the Control of which such Money shall be, in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and in the Case of Trustees, to and for the said High Court of Chancery, in a Summary Way, upon Petition of the Person or Persons who would be Tenant or Tenants of the first Estate or Estates Tail, and of the Person or Persons who would be the Owner or Owners of the antecedent particular Estate or Estates (if any) in the Lands and Hereditaments, in case the same were purchased, such Petitioners being Adults, and in case where any of the Parties are or is a Feme Covert or a Feme Cover, they or he being first separately examined in Cases, or upon a Commission, and swearing, to order the Money Subjected to such Trusts to be paid to the Petitioners, or any of them, or to be paid and applied in such manner and for such Purposes as the Petitioners shall appoint and the Court shall approve of.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where Money Subjected to be laid out in the Purchase of Hereditaments to be limited as aforesaid shall happen to be invested in Government or Real or other Securities, all such Securities shall for the Purposes of this Act be considered as Money, and shall and may accordingly be transferred, assigned and disposed of under an Order of the respective Courts aforesaid, made in a Summary Way upon the Petition of such Person, and with such Examination and Swearing where necessary as aforesaid, in such and the same manner as Money Subjected to be laid out in the Purchase of Hereditaments to be limited as aforesaid are heretofore authorized to be paid, applied and disposed of.

An Act to amend and reduce into One Act the several Laws relating to the manner in which the East India Company are required to hire Ships.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the manner in which the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall hire and take up Ships for their regular Service; and by another Act of Parliament, passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His said present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend Two Acts passed in the Thirty sixth and Forty third Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the manner in which the East India Company shall hire and take up Ships; and by another Act of Parliament, passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His said present Majesty, intituled An Act for making further Provisions for the Payment of Salaries and other Charges in the Office of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India; and for enabling the East India Company in reference to the Service of the said Company's Military Officers removed therefrom by Sentence of Court-Martial; and to authorize the said Company, in case of unforeseen Emergency, to take up Ships by private Contract; various Provisions, regulating the manner in which the said United Company shall hire and take up Ships for their Service, are now in force: And Whereas it is expedient that the Laws relating to the manner of hiring Ships for the said United Company's Service should be amended, and reduced into One Act: And Whereas the Fluctuations of Prices of Naval Stores, and of other Articles incident to the Equipments of Ships in times immediately following the Termination of War, has been such as to render the Calculations upon which the Contracts for Peace Freight have from time to time been made, greatly erroneous and inefficient, and the Performance of such Contracts has in consequence thereof been found to be injurious to the Contracting Parties, that the Court of Directors of the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies have in Two Instances, to-wit, after the Termination of War in One thousand eight hundred and two, and after the Termination of War in One thousand eight hundred and three, presented Petitions to the House of Commons, praying that Parliament would authorize and empower the said Company to make Allowances to the Owners of several Ships hired by them under the Provisions of the said Acts, now and above the Prices at which the said Owners were entitled by their Contracts, and Parliament has in the said Instances complied with the Prayer of the said Petitions; And Whereas it is highly expedient that the Orders and Alterations of Contracts by Authority of Parliament, on whatever Price or Prices, should grow into Precedent: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Whole of the said Acts made and passed in the Thirty sixth and Fifty first Years of the Reign of His said present Majesty, and so much of the said Act made and passed in the Fifty first Year of the Reign of His said present Majesty as relates to the hiring of Ships by the said United Company, shall be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided always, that the Recital of the said Acts shall in nowise be construed to affect any Contract or Agreement made or entered into under the provisions of any of the said Acts, but all such Contracts or Agreements shall be carried into Execution in the same manner as if the said Acts had not been made and passed.

III. And Whereas it may happen that Ships which may have been built for the Service of the said United Company, and which have performed or completed, or hereafter may perform or complete, the Number of Voyages for which they have been agreed upon may be contracted to serve the said Company, or may be so found and proper Conditions to perform a further Voyage or further Voyages in the Service of the said United Company? IV. And be it further enacted, That over and besides the Peace Freight for Ships built or to be built and hired or to be hired for the Service of the said United Company, the Court of Directors of the said Company shall be at Liberty to make such Allowances to the Owners of the said Ships, from Voyage to Voyage, in respect of the additional Charges, if any, arising to the said Owners in time of War or Hostilities, or of Preparations for War or Hostilities, as the said Court of Directors shall think right and just.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case any Ship which now is, or which from the Twentieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and threes last was, or which hereafter shall be engaged in the Service of the said United Company, under a Contract to serve the said Company for Six Voyages, hath been or shall be lost or captured before the Completion of her Fifth Voyage, if upon a full Investigation of the Circumstances of such Loss by the said Court of Directors, or some Committee thereof, the Commander and Owners of such fast Ship shall be fully acquitted from all Imputation of Neglect or Misconduct in respect of such Loss, in the Opinion of Eighteen Directors at least, at a Court specially assembled for the Purpose of taking the said Commander's and the Owner's Conduct into Consideration: Provided always, that such Vote or Resolution of the Court of Directors shall be reported to a General Court of Proprietors, and after each Report such Vote or Resolution of the said Court of Directors shall be confirmed, by way of Ballot, by Three Parts in Four of the Proprietors assembled in General Court specially convened for that Purpose, wherof Eight Days previous Notice of the Time and Purpose of such Meeting shall be given in the London Gazette; then if such Commander shall be then living, or if he shall be dead, then if the Chief Officer of the said fast Ship shall be living (having already performed One Voyage at least as Chief or Second Officer), and should have exerted himself honestly for the Defence and Safety of the lost Ship, either in Fight or Defence at Sea, and shall be acquitted in manner heretofore mentioned from all Imputation of Neglect or Misconduct in respect of such Loss, and such Acquittal shall also be confirmed in manner heretofore mentioned, then a full and may be lawful for the said Court of Directors, on behalf of the said United Company, to enter into an Agreement with the Owners of such fast Ship to sell, or their Representatives, or if such Owners or their Representatives should want or decline, for the Space of Three Calendar Months after the last Vote of Acquittal, to enter into such Agreement, then it shall be lawful for the said Court of Directors, on behalf of the said United Company, to enter into an Agreement with any Person or Persons of sufficient Solvency, and able to give reasonable Security, who shall be nominated in Writing under the Hand of the Commander of such lost Ship, if such Commander shall be living and able to serve, and if not, then with any Person or Persons of sufficient Solvency, and able to give reasonable Security, who shall be nominated in Writing under the Hand of the Chief Officer of such lost Ship, if he shall be living and able to serve, to build another fast Ship of such Size as the said United Company shall have Occasion for to be employed by them for Six or more Voyages, as shall be agreed by the said Court of Directors, at the lowest Rate of Freight, with the Benefit or such other Allowances as are provided or permitted by this Act to be paid, which shall be payable in respect of the Ship of a smaller Size, or as near as may be of a smaller Size, to the Ship about to be built, which shall have been constructed for, for Six Voyages at least, till before the Contract for the Ship instead of such lost Ship shall be entered into: Provided always, that such fast Ship to be built instead of such lost fast Ship shall be commanded in the first Instance by the Captain of the lost Ship, if he shall be living and able to serve, and failing of him, by the said Chief Officer of the lost Ship, if he shall be living and able to serve; and Ships which continued may be hired by private Contract, for Voyages from China or India.

Ships before mentioned of a certain United Measurement may be employed in any Voyage out or home, in any Place except China.

Nothing in this Act to change the Employment of any Ship under the Measurement prescribed by 24 G. 3. c. 123.

which either the Commander or Chief Officer of the said Ship shall be living and able to serve, when the Contract for building a Ship instead of the said Ship shall be entered into, or shall not be lawful for the said United Company or their Court of Directors to enter into any Agreement for building a Ship instead of such said Ship, otherwise than by Public Competition as heretofore mentioned.

XIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to oblige the said Court of Directors, or any of the Governments of the said Company abroad, upon any Occasion, to accept any Tender or Tenders, Proposals or Proposals, which they shall deem to be unreasonable, and for the Performance of which reasonable Security shall not be given; or to enter into any Agreement on any such Proposal, although such Tender or Tenders, Proposal or Proposals may be the lowest and most advantageous which may be offered; nor shall this Act nor any thing herein contained extend or be construed to extend to oblige the Owner or Owners of any Ship or Ships, or any Person or Persons, making or offering any Tender or Tenders, Proposal or Proposals, any Right or Privilege which such Owner or Owners, Person or Persons, would not have had if the several Provisions hereby repealed or this Act had not been passed.

XIV. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend in anywise to relate to any of the Ships or Vessels belonging to or employed in the Marine War Establishment of the said United Company in the East India; but it shall and may be lawful to and for the said United Company and their Court of Directors, and Servants abroad, to hire, take up and employ Vessels for their Purposes only, in such manner as they shall see fit; nor shall this Act extend or be any ways deemed in any way to prevent the said United Company or their Court of Directors, or any of their Officers or Servants, from sending any Goods to be loaded and carried on these Accounts on board any private Ship or Vessel, though not chartered to or in the Service of the said United Company.

XV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all and every and so much and such Parts of the Bye Laws, Rules and Regulations of the said United Company and of their Court of Directors, now in force, and hereafter to be made, any way relating to Shipping Concerns of the said Company, and to the Commanders and Officers in these Services, which are not or shall not be inconsistent with or repugnant to the Provisions hereby enacted, shall remain and be of the same Force and Effect, and shall be observed in like manner to all Tenders and Proposals, as the same Bye Laws, Rules and Regulations, or such Parts thereof as aforesaid, would have been in force, and ought to have been observed, if this Act had not been made, or to restrain the said Company from repealing or making any Bye Laws, so as they shall not be inconsistent with the Provisions herein contained; this Act or any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XVI. And Whereas an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intimated *As Act to authorize the Court of Directors of the East India Company to make extraordinary Allowances in certain cases to the Owners of certain Ships in the Service of the said Company: And Whereas certain Ships now in the Service of the said United Company, called The Mercator, Atlas, Bridgeport, General Harris, Passifera, and General Ryd, were excluded from the Benefit of the said Act, because the Letter to which the Owners of the said Ships had been subjected did not arise out of Contracts framed in strict Conformity to the said Act of the Thirty sixth of George the Third: And Whereas the said Contracts, in far as they differed from Contracts framed in strict Conformity with the said Act of the Thirty sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, were framed so Principles nearly approaching to those which are laid down in the perfect Act for the Government of all future Contracts for hiring Ships by the East India Company; and it is far and reasonable that some additional Allowances should now be made to the Owners of the said six Ships, in respect of the Voyages performed by them under the said Contracts since the Termination of the War, or still remaining to be so performed: Be it therefore enacted, That after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Directors to make such Allowances to the Owner or Owners of each of the said Ships, in respect of any Voyages performed from the Termination of Newsunder Gale shoaled eight hundred and fifteen, or remaining to be performed under their aforesaid Contracts, as the said Court of Directors would have been empowered to make to the Owner or Owners of such Ship, if the Name of such Ship had been included in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament.*

C A P. LXXXV.

An Act to carry into Execution a Convention made between His Majesty and the King of Portugal, for the preventing Traffic in Slaves.
[15th June 1818.]

Convention, dated Jan. 25.
His Majesty, ratif.

WHEREAS an additional Convention to a Treaty of the Twentieth Instant of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, was made between His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal, for the purpose of preventing Slaves Traffic in Slaves, and signed at London on the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifteen: And Whereas it was, in the first Article of the said Convention, declared to be the Object of the said Convention, to prevent the respective Subjects of His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty, from carrying on an illicit Slave Trade; and it was also thereby declared, that every Traffic in Slaves carried on under the following Circumstances, should be considered as illicit, First, either by British Ships and under the British Flag, or for the Avowment of British Subjects by any Vessel or under any Flag whatsoever; Second, by Portuguese Vessels in any of the Harbours or Roads of the Coast of Africa, which are prohibited by the First Article of the Treaty of the Twentieth Instant of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen: Third, under the Portuguese or British Flag, for the Account of the Subjects of any other Government; Fourth, by Portuguese Vessels bound for any Port not in the Dominions of His most Faithful Majesty: And Whereas it was by the Second Article of the said Convention declared and agreed, that the Territories in which the Traffic in Slaves continues to be prosecuted under the Treaty of the Twentieth Instant of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, to the Subjects of His most Faithful Majesty, are the following: First, the Territories possessed by the Crown of Portugal upon the Coast of Africa to the South of the Equator, that is to say, upon the Eastern Coast of Africa, the Territory lying between Cape Delgado and the Bay of Lourenço Marques, and upon the Western Coast, all that which is situated from the Eighth to the Eighteenth Degree of South Latitude; Second, those Territories on the Coast of Africa to the South of the Equator, over which His most Faithful Majesty has declared that he has renounced his Rights, namely, the Territories of Alchada and Calabai upon the Western Coast of Africa, from the Fifth Degree Twelve Minutes to the Eighth Degree South Latitude: And Whereas by the Third Article of the said Convention, His most Faithful Majesty engaged, within the Space of Two Months after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Convention, to promulgate in his Capital and in the other Parts of his Dominions, as soon as possible, a Law which should prohibit the Possession, of any of His Subjects who may in future participate in an illicit Traffic of Slaves, and at the same time to renew the Prohibition which already exists, to import Slaves into the Brazil, under any Flag other than that of Portugal; and His most Faithful Majesty also engaged to stipulate, as much as possible, the Legislation of Portugal, in this respect, to that of Great Britain: And Whereas it was, by the Fourth Article of the said Convention, declared and agreed, that every Portuguese Vessel which should be destined for the Slave Trade on any Point of the African Coast where the Traffic in Slaves should still continue to be lawful, must be provided with a Royal Passport, conformable to the Model annexed to the said Convention, and which Model formed an integral Part of the same, and that every such Passport must be written in the Portuguese Language, with an authentic Translation in English annexed thereto, and must be signed, for all such Vessels sailing from the Port of Rio Janeiro by the Minister of Marine, and for all other Vessels which may be intended for the said Traffic, and which may sail from any other Parts of the Brazil, or from any other of the Dominions of His most Faithful Majesty, not in Europe, the Passports must be signed by the Governor or Chief of the Capitaney to which the Port belongs, and as to those Vessels which may proceed from the Ports of Portugal must be signed by the Secretary of the Government for the Marine Department; And Whereas it was declared and agreed, by the Fifth Article

Article of the said Convention, that the Ships of War of the respective Royal Navies of His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty, which shall be provided with special Instructions for that Purpose, as hereinafter provided, may visit each Merchant Vessel of the Two Nations as may be suspected, upon reasonable Grounds, of having Slaves on board acquired by an illicit Traffic; and in the Event only of their actually finding Slaves on board may detain and bring away such Vessel, in order that they may be brought to Trial before the Tribunals established for that Purpose, as specified in the said Convention; provided that the Commanders of the Ships of War of the Two Royal Navies, who shall be employed on this Service, shall observe strictly to the exact Tenor of the Instructions which they shall have received for that Purpose; and that as the said Article is entirely reciprocal, the Two High Contracting Parties engaged in the said Article mutually to make good any Losses which their respective Subjects may incur unjustly, by the arbitrary and illegal Detention of their Vessels; and that this Indemnity shall invariably be borne by the Government whose Cruise shall have been guilty of the arbitrary Detention; provided that the Visit and Detention of Slave Ships specified in the said Article, shall only be effected by British or Portuguese Vessels which may form Part of the Two Royal Navies, and by those only of such Vessels which are provided with the special Instructions annexed to the said Convention: And Whereas it was declared and decreed by the Sixth Article of the said Convention, that no British or Portuguese Cruise shall detain any Slave Ship not having Slaves actually on board; and in order to render lawful the Detention of any Ship, whether British or Portuguese, the Slaves found on board such Vessel must have been brought there for the express Purpose of the Traffic, and those on board Portuguese Ships must have been taken from that Part of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade was prohibited by the Treaty of the Twenty second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen: And Whereas it was declared and agreed, by the Seventh Article of the said Convention, that all Ships of War of the Two Nations which shall heretofore be entitled to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves, shall be furnished by their own Government with a Copy of the Instructions annexed to the said Convention, and which shall be considered as an integral Part thereof, and that such Instructions shall be written in Portuguese and English, and signed for the Vessels of each of the Two Powers, by the Master of their respective Navies, with a Recommendation of the Faculty of allowing the said Instructions, in Whole or in Part, according to Circumstances; it being however well understood, that the said Alterations cannot take place but by common Agreement, and by the Consent of the Two High Contracting Parties: (And Whereas it was, by the Eighth Article of the said Convention agreed, that in order to bring to Adjudication with the least Delay and Inconvenience, the Vessels which may be detained for having been engaged in an illicit Traffic to Slaves, there shall be established, within the Space of a Year at furthest from the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Convention, Two mixed Commissions, composed of an equal Number of Individuals of the Two Nations, named for the Purpose by their respective Sovereigns; and that those Commissions shall reside, one in a Possession belonging to His Majesty, the other within the Territories of His most Faithful Majesty; and that the Two Governments, at the Period of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Convention, should declare, each for its own Dominion, in what Places the Commissions shall respectively reside, each of the Two High Contracting Parties reserving to itself the Right of changing at its Pleasure the Place of Residence of the Commission held within its own Dominion; provided however that one of the Two Commissions shall always be held upon the Coast of Africa, and the other in the Brasils; and that these Commissions shall judge the Causes submitted to them, without Appeal, and according to the Regulations and Instructions annexed to the said Convention, of which they shall be considered as an integral Part: And Whereas by the Ninth Article of the said Convention, His Britannic Majesty, in conformity with the stipulations of the Treaty of the Twenty second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, engaged to grant, to the master hereinafter explained, sufficient Indemnification to all the Proprietors of Portuguese Vessels and Cruises captured by British Cruisers, between the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the Period at which the Two Commissions pointed out in the Eighth Article of the said Convention shall assemble at their respective Ports; and His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty did agree, that all Claims of the Nature before mentioned shall be received and liquidated by a mixed Commission to be held at Lisbon, and which shall consist of an equal Number of the Individuals of the Two Nations, named by their respective Sovereigns, and upon the same Principles stipulated by the Eighth Article of the said Convention, and by the other Acts which form an integral Part of the same; and that the aforesaid Commissioners shall commence their Functions Six Months after the Ratification of the said Convention, or sooner if possible: And Whereas it was also by the said Convention agreed, that the Proprietors of Vessels captured by the British Cruisers, except João Compagnon for a larger Number of Slaves than that which according to the existing Laws of Portugal they were permitted to transport according to the Rate of Tonnage of the captured Vessel; and that every Portuguese Vessel captured with Slaves on board for the Traffic, which shall be proved to have been embarked within the Territories of the Coast of Africa situated to the North of Cape Palmas, and not belonging to the Crown of Portugal, as well as all Portuguese Vessels captured with Slaves on board for the Traffic, Six Months after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Treaty of the Twenty second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and on which it can be proved that the aforesaid Slaves were embarked at the Roadheads of the Coast of Africa, situated to the North of the Equator, shall not be entitled to claim any Indemnification: And Whereas by the Tenth Article of the said Convention, His Majesty engaged to pay, within the Space of a Year at furthest from the Decision of each case, to the Individual having a just Claim to the same, the Sum which shall be granted to them by the Commissioners appointed to the preceding Articles of the said Convention: And Whereas by the Eleventh Article of the said Convention, His Majesty engaged to pay the Three

• hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, in Indemnification, stipulated by the Convention of the Twenty first of • January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in favour of the Proprietors of Portuguese Vessels captured
 • by British Cruisers up to the Period of the Fall of Juan One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the • manner following; videlicet, the First Payment of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling, Six • Months after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Convention entered by this Act, and that the remaining
 • One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling, as well as the Interest at Five per Centum due upon the • total Sum, from the Day of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Convention of the Twenty first of • January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, should be paid Nine Months after the Exchange of the • Ratifications of the Convention entered by this Act; and that the Interest due shall be payable up to
 • the Day of the last Payment; and that all the aforesaid Payments shall be made in London, to the • Minister of His most Faithful Majesty at the Court of His Majesty, or to the Person whom His • most Faithful Majesty shall think proper to authorize for that Purpose: And Whereas it was by the • Twelfth Article of the said Convention declared, that certain Acts or Instructions answered to the said
 • Convention should form an integral Part thereof, and which were as follows; that it is to say, First, a • Form of Passport for the Portuguese Merchant Ships destined for the lawful Traffic in Slaves; Secondly,
 • Instructions for the Ships of War of both Nations destined to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves;
 • Thirdly, Regulation for the mixed Commissions which are to hold their Sitzings on the Coast of • Africa, at the Senegal, and in London: And Whereas the said Instructions before last referred to, and
 • made an integral Part of the said Convention, et, in the First Article thereof, provide that every Portuguese
 • Portuguese Ship of War shall have a Right to visit the Merchant Ships of either of the Two Powers actually • engaged or suspected to be engaged in the Slave Trade; and should any Slaves be found on board, according
 • to the Tenth of the Sixth Article of the aforesaid Additional Convention, and as to what regards the Portu- • guese Vessels, should there be Cause to suspect that the said Slaves have been embarked on a Part of the • Coast of Africa where the Traffic in Slaves can no longer be legally carried on, in consequence of the Sit• uation in force between the Two High Contracting Powers, in such cases shall the Commander of the
 • said Ship of War may detain them, and having detained them, he is to bring them as soon as possible for
 • Judgment before that of the Two mixed Commissions appointed by the English Article of the Convention
 • which shall be nearest, or which the Commander of the capturing Ship shall, upon his own Responsibility,
 • think he can most conveniently send from the Spot where the Slave Ship shall have been detained; and that Ships on • board of which no Slaves shall be found, intended for the Purposes of Traffic, shall not be detained on any
 • Account or Pretence whatever; and that Negro Servants or Sailors that may be found on board the said
 • Vessels cannot in any case be deemed a sufficient Cause for Detention: And Whereas it was by the Second
 • Article of the said Instructions provided, that no Merchantman or Slave Ship can on any Account or
 • Pretence whatever be visited or detained, whilst in the Port or Roadstead belonging to either of the Two
 • High Contracting Powers, or within Cannon Shot of the Batteries on Shore; but in such delinquent Vessels
 • should be found in circumstances, proper Representations may be addressed to the Authorities of the • Country, requesting them to take effectual Measures for preventing such Abuses: And Whereas it was also • provided, in the Third Article of the said Instructions, in consequence of the immense Extent of the Shores
 • of Africa to the North of the Equator, along which this Commerce continues practised, and the Facility
 • thereby afforded for illicit Traffic, in Ports where either the total Abolition or at least the Detention of lawful
 • Authorities far exceed their Authority; in order to prevent it, and for the more readily attaining
 • the salutary End that His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty did actually grant to each other the Power,
 • without Prejudice to the Rights of Sovereignty, to visit and detain, as if on the High Seas, any Vessel
 • having Slaves on board, even within Cannon Shot of the Shores of their respective Territories on the Coast
 • of Africa to the North of the Equator, in case of there being no local Authorities to whom Recourse
 • might be had, as has been stated in the preceding Article; and that in such case, Vessels so visited may be • brought before the mixed Commissions in the Form prescribed in the First Article of the said Instructions;
 • and it was also by the Fourth Article of the Instructions provided, that no Portuguese Merchantman or • Slave Ship shall, on any Pretence whatever, be detained, which shall be found any where near the Land or
 • on the High Seas South of the Equator, unless after a Chase that shall have commenced North of the • Equator; and by the Fifth Article of the said Instructions, that Portuguese Vessels furnished with a regular
 • Passport, having Slaves on board, shipped at their Ports of the Coast of Africa where the Trade is per• mitted to Portuguese Subjects, and which shall afterwards be found North of the Equator, shall not be
 • detained by the Ships of War of the Two Nations, though furnished with the proper Instructions provided
 • the same can account for their Course, either in conformity with the Practice of the Portuguese Navigation,
 • by steering from the Northward in search of fair Winds, or for other legitimate Causes, such as
 • the Danger of the Sea, duly proved; or lastly, in the case of their Passports proving that they were
 • bound for a Portuguese Port not within the Continent of Africa: provided always, that with regard to all
 • Slave Ships detained to the North of the Equator, the Proof of the Legality of the Voyage is to be • furnished by the Vessel so detained; on the other Hand, with respect to Slave Ships detained to the South
 • of the Equator, in conformity with the stipulations of the preceding Article, the Proof of the Illegality
 • of the Voyage is to be exhibited by the Captor; it is in like manner stipulated, that the Number of Slaves
 • found on board a Slave Ship by the Cruisers, even should the Number not agree with that contained in their
 • Passports, shall not be a sufficient Reason to justify the Detention of the Ship, but the Captain and the Pres-
 • enters shall be denounced in the Portuguese Tribunals in the Senegal, in order to their being proceeded
 • according to the Laws of the Country: And Whereas it was by the Sixth Article of the said Instructions
 • provided, that every Portuguese Vessel intended to be employed in the legal Traffic in Slaves, in conformity with the Principles laid down in the said Convention, shall be commanded by a Native Portuguese, and Two-thirds at least of the Crew shall likewise be Portuguese; provided always, that no Portuguese or Foreign Constitution shall in anywise affect its Nationality, and that the Negro Sailors shall always be reckoned as Portuguese; provided they belong as Slaves to Subjects of the Crown of Portugal, or that they have been emancipated in the Dominion of His most Faithful Majesty: And Whereas it was also, by the Seventh Article of the said Instructions, provided, that whenever a Ship of War shall meet a Merchant Vessel liable to be searched, it shall be done in the most mild manner, and with every Attention which is due between Allied and Friendly Nations; and in no case shall the Search be made by an Officer holding a Rank inferior to that of Lieutenant in the Navy; and by the Eighth Article of the said Instructions, that the Ships of War which may detain Slave Ships, in pursuance of the Principles laid down in the said Instructions, shall leave on board all the Cargo of Negroes unattached, as well as the Captain, and a Part at least of the Crew of the Slave Ship; and that the Captain shall draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, which shall exhibit the State in which he found the detained Ship, and the Changes which may have taken place in it; and that he shall deliver to the Captain of the Slave Ship a signed Certificate of the Papers found on board the said Vessel, as well as of the Number of Slaves found on board at the Moment of Detention; and that the Negroes shall not be disembarked till after the Vessel which contain them shall be arrived at the Place where the Legation of the Captain is to be tried by one of the Two mixed Commissions, in order that in the Event of their not being adjudged legal Prizes, the Loss of the Prisoners may be more easily repaired; but that if urgent Motives, deduced from the Length of the Voyage, the State of Health of the Negroes, or other Causes, require that they shall be disembarked entirely or in Part, before the Vessel can arrive at the Place of the Residence of One of the said Commissions, the Commander of the capturing Ship may take on himself the Responsibility of such Disembarkation, provided that the Necessity be fixed in a Certificate in proper Form; and it was by the Ninth Article of the said Instructions provided, that in Consequence of Slaves from one Part of the Brazil to another, or from the Continent or Islands of Africa to the Possessions of Portugal out of America, shall take place as Objects of Commerce, except in Ships provided with Passports from the Portuguese Government at bar: And Whereas also it was by the said Regulations for the mixed Commissions which were established according to the Supulations of the said Convention, and which Regulations were declared to be an integral Part of the said Convention, provided, in the First Article of the said Regulations, that the mixed Commissions to be established by the said Convention upon the Coast of Africa and in the Brazil, are appointed to decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Slave Vessels as the Commanders of both Nations shall detain in pursuance of the said Convention, for carrying on such Commerce in Slaves; and that the above mentioned Commissions shall judge, without Appeal, according to the Letter and Spirit of the Treaty signed of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and of the said Additional Convention to the said Treaty, signed at London on the Twenty eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and recited in this Act, that the Commissions shall give Sentence as summarily as possible, and they are required to decide (as far as they shall find it practicable) within the Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from that on which every detained Vessel shall have been brought into the Port where they shall reside; first, upon the Legality of the Capture; secondly, in the case in which the captured Vessel shall have been liberated, as to the Indemnification which the Spain owes; and it is thereby provided that in all cases the said Sentence shall not be delayed on account of the Absence of Witnesses, or for Want of other Proof, beyond the Period of Two Months, except upon the Application of any of the Parties interested, when, upon their giving satisfactory Security to charge themselves with the Expense and Risk of the Delay, the Commissions may, in their Discretion, grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four Months; and it was by the Second Article of the said Regulations provided, that each of the above mentioned mixed Commissions, which are to reside on the Coast of Africa and in the Brazil, shall be composed in the following manner: The Two High Contracting Parties shall each of them name a Comissary Judge and a Commissioner of Arbitration, who shall be authorized to hear and to decide, without Appeal, all cases of Capture of Slave Vessels which, in pursuance of the Supulations of the Additional Convention of this date, may be laid before them; and that all the official Parts of the Proceedings carried on before their mixed Commissions shall be written down in the Language of the Country in which the Commission may reside; and the Comissary Judges, and the Commissioners of Arbitration, shall make Oath, in Presence of the Principal Magistrate of the Place in which the Commission may reside, to judge fairly and faithfully, to have no Preference either for the Claimants or the Captors, and so act in all their Decisions in pursuance of the Supulations of the Treaty of the Twenty second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and of the Additional Convention to the said Treaty recited in this Act; and that there shall be attached to each Commission a Secretary or Registrar appointed by the Sovereign of the Country in which the Commission may reside, who shall register all its Acts, and who, previous to taking Charge of his Post, shall make Oath, in Presence of at least One of the Comissary Judges, to conduct himself with Respect for their Authority, and to act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to his Charge; and it was also provided in the Third Article of the Regulations, that the Form of the Process shall be as follows: The Comissary Judges of the Two Nations shall in the First Place proceed to the Examination of the Papers of the Vessel, and to receive the Depositions on Oath of the Captain and Two or Three at least of the principal Individuals on board of the detained Vessel, as well as the Declaration on Oath of the Captor, should it appear necessary, in order to be able to judge and so pronounce if the said Vessel has been justly detained or not, according to the Supulations of the said Additional Convention recited in this Act, and in order that according to this Judgment, it may be condemned or liberated; and in the Event of the Two Comissary Judges not agreeing in the Sentence they ought to pronounce, whether as to the Legality of the Detention, as the Indemnifications be allowed, or on any other Question which might result from the stipulations of the said Convention, they shall draw by Lot the Names of One of the Two Commissioners of Arbitration, who, after having considered the Documents of the Process, shall consult with the above mentioned Consular Judges on the case in question, and the final Sentence shall be pronounced conformably to the Opinion of the Majesty of the above mentioned Consular Judges, and of the above mentioned Commissioner of Arbitration: And it was also provided by the Fourth Article of the said Regulations, that as often as the Cargo of Slaves found on board of a Portuguese Slave Ship shall have been embarked on any Port whatever of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade was legal in the Subjects of the Crown of Portugal, such Slave Ship shall not be detained on Pretence that the above mentioned Slaves shall have been brought originally by Land from any other Port whatever of the Continent; and it was also in the Fifth Article of the said Regulations provided, that in the aforementioned Declaration which the Captain shall make before the Commission, as well as in the Certificate of the Papers issued, which shall be delivered to the Captain of the captured Vessel at the time of the Detention, the above mentioned Captain shall be bound to declare his Name, the Name of his Vessel, as well as the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detention shall have taken place, and the Number of Slaves found living on board of the Slave Ship at the time of the Detention; and it was also provided, in the Sixth Article of the said Regulations, that as soon as Sentence shall have been passed, the detained Vessel, if damaged, and what amount of the Cargo, shall be returned to the Proprietors, who may before the same Commission claim a Valuation of the Damages which they may have a Right to demand, the Captain himself, and in his Default his Government, shall remain responsible for the above mentioned Damages; and that the Two High Contracting Powers did bind themselves to defray, within the Term of a Year from the Date of the Sentence, the Indemnifications which may be granted by the above named Commission, it being understood that these Indemnifications shall be at the Expense of the Powers of which the Captain shall be a Subject; and by the Seventh Article of the said Regulations, that in case of the condemnation of a Vessel for an unlawful Voyage, she shall be declared lawful Prize, as well as her Cargo, of whatever Description it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who may be on board as Objects of Commerce; and the said Vessel, as well as her Cargo, shall be sold by Public Sale, for the Profit of the Two Governments; and as to the Slaves, they shall receive from the mixed Commission a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Government on whose Territory the Commission which shall have judged them shall be established, to be employed as Servants or Free Labourers, with Guarantee by each of the Two Governments respectively, the Liberty of such Parties of their Individuals as shall be respectively assigned to it; and it was also provided by the Eighth Article of the said Regulations, that every Claim for Compensation of Losses occasioned to Ships suspected of carrying on an illicit Trade in Slaves, not condemned as lawful Prize by the mixed Commission, shall be able to be heard and judged by the above named Commission, in the Form provided by the Third Article of the said Regulations herebefore enacted; and in all cases where Restitution shall be so desired, the Commission shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, or to their lawful Attorney or Attorneys, for his or their Use, a full and complete Indemnification, first, for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages which the Claimant or Claimants may have actually sustained by such Capture and Detention, that is to say, in the case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, first, for the Ship, her Tackle, Apparel and Stores; secondly, for all Freight due and payable; thirdly, for the Value of the Cargo of Merchandise, if any; fourthly, for the Slaves on board at the time of Detention, according to the computed Value of such Slaves at the Place of Detention, deducting therefrom the usual fair average Mortality for the unexpired Period of the regular Voyage, deducting also for all Charges and Expenses payable upon the Sale of such Cargo, including Commission of Sale when payable at each Port; and fifthly, for all other regular Charges in such sale of total Loss; and in all other cases not of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, first, for all special Damages and Expenses occasioned to the Ship by the Detention, and for Loss of Freight when due or payable; secondly, a Damages, where due, according to the Schedule annexed; thirdly, a daily Allowance for the Subsistence of Slaves of One Shilling or One hundred and eighty Penns for each Person, without Distinction of Age or Sex, for so many Days as it shall appear to the Commission that the Voyage has been or may be delayed by order of such Detention; as likewise, fourthly, for any Detention of Cargo or Slaves; fifthly, for any Detention in the Value of the Cargo of Slaves proceeding from an unlawful Mortality beyond the average Amount of the Voyage, or from Sickness occasioned by Detention, the Value to be ascertained by their computed Price at the Place of Destination, as is in the above case of total Loss; sixthly, an Allowance of Five per Centum on the Amount of Capital employed in the Purchase and Maintenance of Cargo for the Period of Delay occasioned by the Detention; and seventhly, for all Payment of Insurance on additional Risk; the Claimant or Claimants shall likewise be entitled to Interest at the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum on the Sum awarded, until paid by the Government to which the capturing Ship belongs; the whole Amount of such Indemnifications being calculated in the Money of the Country on which the captured Ship belongs, and to be liquidated at Exchange Current at the time of Award, excepting the Sum for the Subsistence of Slaves, which shall be paid at par, as above stipulated; the Two High Contracting Parties willing to avoid, as much as possible, every Species of Fraud in the Execution of the Additional Convention of this Date, have agreed, that if it should be proved, in a manner evident to the Consensus of the Judges of the Two Nations, and without having Recourse to the Decision of a Commission of Arbitration, that the Captain has been led into Error by a voluntary and reproachable Fault on the Part of the Captain of the detained Ship, in that case only the detained Ship shall not have the Right of receiving, during the Days of her Detention, the Damages stipulated by the present Article:—

Schedule of Damages or Daily Allowance for a Vessel of 100 Tons to 120 inclusive - 45	} per Diem;	200 Tons to 220 inclusive - 45	} per Diem;

121 ditto to 150 - ditto - 5		221 ditto to 250 - ditto - 5
151 ditto to 170 - ditto - 8		251 ditto to 270 - ditto - 8
171 ditto to 200 - ditto - 10		271 ditto to 300 - ditto - 10

and to be proportion; and it was also provided by the Ninth Article of the said Regulations, that when the Proprietors of a Ship suspected of carrying on an illicit Trade in Slaves, referred to in consequence of a Sentence of One of the mixed Commissions (or in the case as above mentioned of total Loss), shall claim Indemnification for the Loss of Slaves which he may have suffered, he shall in no case be entitled to claim for more than the Number of Slaves which his Vessel was by the Portuguese Laws authorized to carry, which Number shall always be declared in his Passport; and it was also provided by the Tenth Article of the said Regulations, that the mixed Commission established in London by the Article Ninth of the said Convention heretofore recited, shall hear and determine all Claims for Portuguese Ships and Cargoes captured by British Cruisers, on account of the unlawful Trading in Slaves, since the Port of Azor One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, all the Period when the Convention is to be in complete Execution, according to them, conformably to the Ninth Article of the said Convention, a full and complete Compensation, upon the Basis laid down in the preceding Article, either for total Loss, or for Losses and Damages sustained by the Owners and Proprietors of the said Ships and Cargoes; and it was also provided, that the said Commission established in London shall be composed and proceed exactly upon the same Basis determined in the Articles of One, Two, and Three of the Regulations heretofore recited, for the Commissions established on the Coast of Africa and the Branch; and it was also provided by the Eleventh Article of the said Regulations, that it shall not be permitted to any of the Commissary Judges, nor to the Arbitrators, nor to the Secretary of any of the mixed Commissions, to demand or receive from any one of the Parties concerned in the Sentence which they shall pronounce, any Emolument, under any Pretext whatsoever, for the Performance of the Duties which are imposed upon them by the Regulations annexed to the Convention as aforesaid; and by the Ninth Article of the said Regulations, that when the Parties interested shall imagine they have Cause to complain of any evident Injustice as the Part of the mixed Commissions, they may represent it to their respective Governments, who reserve to themselves the Right of mutual Correspondence, for removing, when they think fit, the Individuals who may compose their Commissions; And it was also provided by the Thirteenth Article of the said Regulations, that in the case of a Vessel detained unjustly under the Pretence of the Stipulations of the Additional Convention of the Date, and in which the Captor should neither be authorized by the Treaty of the above mentioned Convention, nor of the Instructions annexed to it, the Government to which the detained Vessel may belong shall be entitled to demand Reparation, and in such case the Government to which the Captor may belong binds itself to make the Subject of Complaint to be fully examined, and to inflict upon the Captor, if he be found to have delivered it, a Punishment proportioned to the Transgression which may have been committed; And it was also agreed in the Fourteenth Article of the said Regulations, that in the Event of the Death of One or more of the Commissioners, Judges and Arbitrators composing the above mentioned mixed Commissions, their Polls shall be supplied ad interim in the following manner; as the Part of the British Government, the Vacancies shall be filled successively in the Commission which shall sit within the Possessions of His Britannic Majesty, by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor resident in that Colony, by the principal Magistrate of the Place, and by the Secretary, and in the Branch, by the British Consul and Vice Consul resident in the City in which the mixed Commission may be established; as the Part of Portugal, the Vacancies shall be supplied in the Branch by such Persons as the Captain General of the Province shall name for that Purpose; and considering the Difficulty which the Portuguese Government would feel in naming its Parties to fill the Polls which might become vacant in the Commission established in the British Possessions, it is agreed, that in case of the Death of the Portuguese Commissioners, Judge or Arbitrators, in their Possessions, the remaining Individuals of the above mentioned Commission shall be equally authorized to proceed to the Judgment of such Slave Ships as may be brought before them, and to the Execution of their Sentence; in this case alone, however, the Parties interested shall have the Right of appealing from the Sentence, if they think fit, to the Commission which sits in the Branch; and the Government to which the Captor shall belong shall be bound fully to delay the Indemnification which shall be due to them, if the Appeal be judged in favour of the Claimants, it being well understood that the Ship and Cargo shall remain during this Appeal in the Place of Refuge of the Port Commission before whom the may have been confiscated; and it was in the said Regulation agreed to supply, as soon as possible, every Vacancy that may arise in the above mentioned Commissions from Death or any other Contingency; and in case that the Vacancy of each of the Portuguese Commissioners residing in the British Possessions be not supplied at the End of six Months, the Vessels which are taken there to be judged, after the Expiration of that time, shall no longer have the Right of Appeal heretofore stipulated: And it was also further provided and declared and agreed, in a separate Article, that as soon as the total Abolition of the Slave Trade for the Subjects of the Crown of Portugal shall have taken Place, the Two High Contracting Parties, by common Consent, will adopt so that State of Circumstances the Stipulations of the said Additional Convention of the Twenty eighth July heretofore recited; but in Defect of such Alteration, that the said Additional Convention shall remain in force until the Expiration of Fifteen Years from the Day on which the general Abolition of the Slave Trade shall take place on the Part of the Portuguese Government; and that the said separate Article shall have the same Force and Validity as if it were inserted Word for Word in the said Additional Con-

[illegible]

II. And be it further enacted, That all Ships and Vessels, belonging wholly or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, which shall be fastened upon reasonable Grounds of having Slaves on board acquired by an illicit Traffic, shall be and are hereby declared and made, according to the said Treaty, Convention and Regulations aforesaid, subject to the Visitation of British or Portuguese Vessels of War, duly authorized for that Purpose, according to the Provisions before recited; and that all Ships and Vessels belonging wholly or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, which shall be found having Slaves on board acquired by an illicit Traffic, contrary to the Treaty, Convention and Regulations so recited as aforesaid, and all Boats, Apparels, Furnitures and Slaves belonging to such Ships or Vessels, and all Cargoes therein, shall be and are hereby declared to be and made subject to the Visit and Detention of British or Portuguese Vessels of War duly authorized for that Purpose, according to the Stipulations of the said Convention, and to Forfeiture according to the Provisions of the said Convention, and the Regulations and Instructions thereto annexed, and for that Purpose shall be and are hereby made subject to the Adjudication of, and to Compensation or other Judgment by the Consular Judges and Commissioners to be appointed according to the Provisions of the said Convention, and to the said Rules, Orders and Regulations annexed hereto, recited as aforesaid.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to appoint such Commissioners, Judges and Commissioners of Arbitration as are in and by the said Convention and Regulations thereunto annexed, mentioned to be appointed by His Majesty, and from time to time to supply any Vacancies which may arise in such Offices, by appointing other Persons thereto; and to grant Salaries to such Commissioners, Judges and Commissioners of Arbitration as aforesaid, not exceeding such Annual Sums as the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain and Ireland shall from time to time direct; and such Commissioners, Judges and Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to examine and decide all such cases of Detention, Capture and Seizure of Vessels and their Cargoes as aforesaid, detained, seized, taken or captured under the said Treaty or Convention, or Instructions and Regulations, as are by the said Treaty, Convention, Instructions and Regulations, and by this Act, made subject to their Jurisdiction, and to proceed therein, and give such Judgments and make such Orders thereon, and to do all other Acts, matters and things appertaining thereto, specially to the President of the said Treaty and Convention, and the Individuals and Regulations annexed thereto and recited as aforesaid, so fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if special Powers and Authorities were specifically and particularly allotted and given in relation thereto to the said Act.

IV. And to be further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, to nominate and appoint a Secretary or Registrar to the Commission which shall be established in His Majesty's Dominions, and from time to time to supply, by other Appointments, any Vacancy which may hereafter arise in such Office, and to grant Salaries to such Secretary or Registrar, not exceeding such Annual Sum as the said Lords Commissioners shall from time to time direct; and such Secretary or Registrar is hereby respectively authorized and empowered to do, perform and execute all the Duties of such Office, as set forth and defined in the said Commission, Instructions and Regulations respectively heretofore created as aforesaid, and so to do, perform and execute all such Acts, matters and things as may be necessary for the due Discharge of the Duties of his Office, according to the Provisions of the said Commission and Instructions and Regulations as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor or Lieutenant Governor or Principal Magistrate of the Colony or Settlement in which the Commission shall sit, within the Possessions of His Majesty's Majesty, to fill up every Vacancy which shall arise in such Commission, either of Com-missary Judge, Commissioner or any Officer thereof, appointed by His Majesty as aforesaid, according to the Provisions contained in the before recited Regulations annexed to the said Commission as aforesaid, or, as serv-ice, until such Vacancy or Vacancies shall be otherwise filled by some Person or Persons appointed by His Majesty for that Purpose.

VI. And to be further enacted, That every Comptroller Judge and Commissioner of Arbitration, appointed by His Majesty, shall, before he shall enter upon the Execution of any of the Duties of such his Office, take an Oath, in the Presence of the Principal Magistrate then residing and acting in the Colony, Settlement or Place in which the Commission shall be appointed to reside; which Oath every such Magistrate in any Colony, Settlement or Place belonging to His Majesty, in which such Court or Commission shall be appointed, is hereby authorized to administer, in the Form following:— that is to say.

Abstract Chlamydia trachomatis is the most common bacterial sexually transmitted infection in the United States. The purpose of this study was to determine the prevalence of C. trachomatis in a community-based sample of men and women in the United States. A cross-sectional study was conducted in 1999 in a community-based sample of men and women in the United States. The prevalence of C. trachomatis was 1.1% (95% CI 0.4–2.8%) in men and 1.1% (95% CI 0.4–2.8%) in women. The prevalence of C. trachomatis was higher in men than in women (1.1% vs. 0.8%, P = 0.001). The prevalence of C. trachomatis was higher in men than in women (1.1% vs. 0.8%, P = 0.001). The prevalence of C. trachomatis was higher in men than in women (1.1% vs. 0.8%, P = 0.001).
